

CFO

SELECTIONS

Roger Johnson

Qualifications Summary

Significant experience in financial and systems management, also including experience in business acquisitions/combinations, controllership and accounting operations in manufacturing, distribution, and service industries. Substantial international background and experience in Asia.

Professional History

Sensient Technologies Ltd.	Asia Pacific Division Controller	(2002-2005)
Arnotts Ltd / Campbell Soup Asia	Private Consulting	(2000-2001)
Kellogg Asia/Pacific	Program Director ERP	(1997-2000)
Kellogg Co	Finance Director (Division CFO)	(1993-1997)
Ralston Purina Company.	Financial & Bus. Development Mgr.	(1991-1993)
Central Institute of Finance	Lecturer/Foreign Expert	(1989-1991)
Smithkline Bio-Science Labs	Manager Planning - Business Dev.	(1986-1989)
Redken Laboratories	Director of Accounting	(1984-1985)
Thermasol Ltd	Controller	(1983-1984)
Louver Drape Inc	Controller	(1977-1982)
Ernst & Ernst	Senior Financial & EDP Auditor	(1975-1977)

Accomplishments

- As a member of the Asia Pacific Region of Kellogg Company, responsible for a 3 phase implementation of Kellogg ERP global systems in Asia Pacific for 9 operations and 8 countries using Oracle integrated software for Finance and Supply Chain.
- As a member of the Business Development group, responsible for the research, negotiation, analysis and valuation of investment options in the PRC and identified the “target investment markets” which subsequently became the basis for the company’s investment strategy.
- Responsibilities in this clinical laboratory division of SmithKline Beckman included financial reporting, budgeting, financial planning and acquisition analysis. Established acquisition procedure & financial modeling template to evaluate 6 laboratories and resulting in the acquisition of 3 laboratories within 2 years. Successfully transitioned 3 acquired laboratories into the SmithKline organization and financial systems.
- Managed the general & cost accounting functions of Louver Drape as a manufacturer and innovator of the vertical blind with sales of $50 million; Successfully controlled staff size and maintained accurate & timely financial reporting while company grew at 50% per year. Created and installed cost accounting and inventory control systems.

Licenses / Education

- MBA, Pepperdine University
- CPA in the State of Illinois
- BS in Accounting, University of Illinois in Chicago
- International Business, U.C.L.A. night school