

Charlie McNamara

Qualifications Summary

Charlie is an accomplished financial professional with over 20 years of nonprofit accounting experience in financial reporting, auditing, tax, budgeting, and forecasting. His managerial style includes team building by coaching and mentoring accounting staff.

Professional History

National Court Appointed Special Advocate Association	Interim CFO	2020 – 2021
	Controller	1998 – 2019
Gold Inc.	Assistant Controller	1995 – 1997
Copy Supply Company	Accountant	1993 – 1994
Pizza Blends Inc.	Credit Manager	1991 – 1992
Diers & Whittemore, CPA's	Staff Accountant	1989 – 1990

Accomplishments

- Applied for and received $1.7M in federal Paycheck Protection Programs loans, including proper spenddown and loan forgiveness, to retain personnel supporting continuous operations.
- Successfully managed 25 different funding sources annually including government grants, private foundation grants, membership dues, event revenue, and individual donation income.
- Adhered to federal procurement requirements and allowability of costs, enabling successful management of over $10M of federal funds annually.
- Implemented subrecipient desk audit program for over 300 grantees for compliance with federal funds, improving safeguarding of resources.
- Managed annual nonprofit audits and received clean audit reports for 23 consecutive years.
- Customized financial reporting software to create easy to read financial reporting package.
- Prepared $14M annual budgets and controlled costs to improve operations.
- Managed $13M yearly cash flow and handled $500K investments to make best use of funds.
- Trained nonprofit board members on financial organization overview for quick onboarding.

Licenses / Education

- Bachelor of Arts, Business Administration (Accounting) – Washington State University
- Certified Public Accountant, State of Washington