

Gerard Hranek

Qualifications Summary

Seasoned finance and operations professional with over thirty years of experience in industries such as technology, financial services, healthcare, and manufacturing. Capable leader with expertise in compliance, investor relations, contract management, HR and IT functions, and risk management. Skilled at creating and managing infrastructure, implementing change, and casting strategic vision for the future.

Professional History

Varidi, Inc.	CFO, COO, Compliance Officer	2017 – 2019
Neuro-ID, Inc.	CFO, COO, Compliance Officer	2015 – 2017
CareCap LLC	State Compliance Officer	2014 – 2015
TokuSaku Consulting	Risk, Change, Compliance Manager	2010 – 2014
Microvision	Senior Product Line Manager	2002 – 2006
JDS Uniphase	Senior Product Line Manager	2000 – 2002
3Com	Global Escalation Manager	1998 – 2000
Acuson/Siemens	Global Corporate Liaison	1989 – 1998

Accomplishments

- Created and managed corporate infrastructure for finance and operations. Managed $1.3M in investment raises, led investor relations.
- Rebranded, created new products and financial model, and relaunched company.
- Established and managed HIPPA and SOC 2 compliance status.
- Determined key risk elements leading to lost contract revenue. Established and rolled out new policies. Recovered $25M in risk reserve funds.
- Created program and managed legal and financial concerns for each state.
- Over 4 years managing specialty projects and challenges in Europe and the Pacific Rim for a major medical device manufacturer.
- Patent holder on Medical Image Archival System.

Education and Certifications

- MBA, Strategy, Santa Clara University
- Bachelor of Science, Electronics Engineering, Cal Poly San Luis Obispo
- Certified Product Manager