

Jennifer Hurder

Qualifications Summary

Senior finance professional with 30 years of experience across multiple industries including self-regulatory, consumer goods and services, insurance, financial services, and non-profits. Proven leadership experience in public and private companies with expertise in valuation, financial planning and analysis, budgets, accounting, financial reporting, mergers and acquisitions, partnerships, strategy, business development and human resources.

Professional History

CFO Selections	Consultant	2024 – Present
YMCA of Columbia Willamette	Vice President, Finance	2022 – 2024
Pittock Mansion Society	Director of Finance & Administration	2018 – 2022
CME Group	Executive Director, Corporate Development & Finance	2010 – 2018
	Associate Director / Manager / Senior Financial Analyst, Corporate Finance	2004 – 2010
	Senior Financial Analyst – FP&A	2001 – 2004
CNA Insurance	Financial Analyst	2000 – 2001
Oil-Dri Corporation of America	Senior Financial Accountant	1998 – 2000
National Futures Association	Auditor	1995 – 1998

Accomplishments

- At the YMCA of Columbia Willamette, secured term loan and line of credit, oversaw clean single audit for government grants, improved financial reporting, and implemented new financial policies to improve processes and internal controls.
- Secured funding for Pittock Mansion Society during pandemic operations, including two PPP Loans, Employee Retention Credits, and Oregon Cultural Trust Grant. Also led RFP process for a new Investment Advisor, including review and update of Investment policy.
- At CME Group, led organization in the M&A strategy development, evaluation, negotiation, and execution of commercial and M&A transactions. Co-developed business plan for new service offering to generate a new revenue stream.
- In the Corporate Finance department at CME Group, prepared valuation modeling, due diligence and synergy analysis for mergers and acquisitions and worked collaboratively to estimate and track annual run-rate cost synergies.
- As a member of the Financial Planning Analysis team at CME Group, analyzed network costs and collaborated with vendor to reduce costs by $2 million annually.
- Broad financial and business experience across several organizations including auditing, accounting, budgeting, forecasting, scenario analysis, payroll, AP/AR, HR, and IT.

Licenses / Education

- Bachelor of Business Administration, Finance with Accounting Emphasis and Sociology Minor - University of Iowa
- Master of Business Administration, Finance - DePaul University Kellstadt Graduate School of Business with Distinction