

Jennifer Thompson, CPA

Qualifications Summary

Jennifer started her career in hospitality management. Fifteen years of experience managing operations and logistics in the service industry gave her a strong work ethic and a passion for problem-solving. She credits that foundational experience for her success as a Fractional Controller/CFO today. She now has 8 years of experience as a CPA and excels in her consulting practice as a catalyst for finding solutions for non-profit organizations. She delivers high-impact, meaningful financial reports that align with program delivery and strategic initiatives.
