

Larry Numata

Qualifications Summary

A proven senior-level executive with strong financial, operational, administrative, and business development knowledge. Extensive experience working with and advising public and privately held enterprises.

Professional History

SECO Development, Inc.	CFO	2002- 2004
Computech Systems Corporation and InnerVu Corporation	CFO and Corporate Security	1998- 2002
Trammell Crow Company	Controller	1995- 1998
US West Paging, Inc.	Controller	1989- 1994
Horizon Air Industries	Director of General Accounting	1986- 1989
Thousand Trails, Inc.	Assistant Controller	1979- 1986

Accomplishments

- Proven success in designing financial models to obtain financing at favorable terms and conditions that leveraged and improved operating cash.
- Directed financial analyses, due diligence, and transition activities relating to an acquisition target that extended market share.
- Reviewed and implemented changes to financial reporting controls and systems to ensure timely and accurate internal and external reporting.
- Successfully strengthened and transformed internal control systems that ensured the integrity and credibility of operations.

Licenses / Education

- CPA
- B.A. Business Administration (Accounting), University of Washington
- Graduate, Management Action Program (MAP)
- Graduate, Executive Development Institute