

Steve Winslow

Qualifications Summary

Steve Winslow is a seasoned finance executive with over twenty years of progressive responsibility in both public and private companies. He has raised over $4.5B in debt and equity financing, and has proven experience in mergers and acquisitions, operational support and analysis, foreign operations, liquidity and loan compliance, investor relations, rating agencies, and SEC and corporate disclosures.

Professional History

Frontbridge Capital	Partner	2020 – Present
PNW Integrated Telecom Provider	Chairman of the Board	2020 – Present
University of Montana Foundation	Trustee	2019 – Present
CFO Selections	Consulting CFO	2011 – Present
LD Entertainment Group.	Co-Founder	2009 – 2011
SeaMobile, Inc.	Chief Financial Officer	2006 – 2007
Western Wireless Corporation	Vice President – Treasurer	2002 – 2005
	Executive Director, Taxation & Treasury	2000 – 2002
	Director of Taxation	1995 – 2000
Cellular Telecommunications Industry Association	Chairman of Wireless Tax Group	1998 – 1999
Arthur Andersen LLP	Tax Manager	1986 – 1995

Accomplishments

- As Chief Financial Officer of SeaMobile, raised over $200M in four separate transactions including senior bank debt and multiple equity sales.
- Experienced in integration of personnel and systems following acquisitions, including international offices.
- Negotiated terms of, and managed, over $2B in long-term debt, including debt held by a large syndicate of banks and other financial institutions. Participated in leadership of negotiations with creditors committee that resulted in refinancing of over $1B in debt with significantly improved terms for the company.
- Experienced with disclosure and reporting requirements for public companies. Participated as a member of a corporate disclosure committee. Instituted comprehensive investor relations programs that included both direct (buy-side investors) and indirect (sell-side analysts) investor communications on company business strategy, operating results, capital structure, and key investment themes.
- Played key role in spin-off of VoiceStream Wireless, including obtaining IRS ruling securing tax-free status, developing stock option strategy, preparing SEC documents, and communicating to company employees.
- Extensive experience in representing companies before both local and federal governmental entities, including testifying, lobbying legislators, brokering agreements, and negotiating substantial government economic development incentives.
- Responsible for long term planning at multiple companies, including identifying industry trends, and establishing broad capital spending levels to reflect investment in growth and new technologies.

Licenses / Education

- MBA, Executive Program, University of Washington
- B.S. in Business Administration, The University of Montana
- Won award for achievement of highest statewide score on Uniform CPA Exam.